COURSE OVERVIEW

This training course introduces teachers to effective ways of using cinema to develop English language skills. Participants explore how film scenes, dialogues and visual storytelling can support listening, vocabulary growth and cultural awareness. The course presents practical strategies for designing classroom tasks based on movies, selecting appropriate clips, and guiding students through meaningful and creative activities that enhance motivation and communication in English through film-based learning.

METHODOLOGY

The course adopts a practical, learner-centered approach, combining:

- interactive film-based workshops
- group discussions and analysis
- project-based creation of activities
- micro-teaching with peer feedback
- digital and AI-supported tools for clip selection and tasks

Participants will design their own film-based lesson and exchange ideas with colleagues.

TARGET GROUP

- Regional and local authorities;
- School/ adult centre management department, collaborators and volunteers
- Teachers & school staff

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Understand how cinema enhances language learning and cultural knowledge.
- Select films and clips suited to linguistic and communicative goals.
- Use movie scenes to develop listening, speaking and critical thinking.
- Design creative activities such as role-plays, dubbing and scene rewriting.
- Integrate digital tools for subtitling and multimodal tasks.
- Apply inclusive strategies and share transferable film-based resources.
