COURSE OVERVIEW

This training course introduces educators to Montessori principles and their application in SEND-inclusive education. Participants explore how adapted materials, structured environments and multisensory activities can support learners with diverse needs. The course highlights practical strategies for fostering autonomy, concentration and emotional regulation, while showing how Montessori pedagogy can be integrated into mainstream classrooms to promote participation, accessibility and meaningful learning for all students.

METHODOLOGY

The course adopts a practical, learner-centered approach, combining:

- hands-on exploration of Montessori materials
 - group discussions on SEND adaptations
 - creation of personalised, multisensory activities
 - micro-teaching with peer feedback
 - observation of Montessori-inspired practices
- Participants will design inclusive tools and share effective strategies..

TARGET GROUP

- Regional and local authorities;
- School/ adult centre management department, collaborators and volunteers
- Teachers & school staff

LEARNING OUTCOMES
