COURSE OVERVIEW

This training course focuses on developing essential soft skills that enhance teaching effectiveness, communication and classroom relationships. Participants explore strategies to strengthen teamwork, emotional intelligence, problem-solving and adaptability in educational settings. Through practical activities and reflective tasks, the course helps teachers improve interpersonal interactions, manage challenges with confidence and create positive learning environments that support student motivation, cooperation and overall well-being.

METHODOLOGY

The course adopts an active, learner-centered approach, combining:

- interactive workshops on communication and teamwork
- role-plays and problem-solving scenarios
- reflective activities and self-assessment
- peer coaching and group collaboration
- digital tools to support emotional and social skills

Participants will practise soft skills and apply them to real teaching situations.
