COURSE OVERVIEW

This training course provides teachers with practical strategies to support dyslexic learners in foreign language classrooms. Participants explore how multisensory techniques, structured instruction and accessible materials can help improve reading, spelling, listening and speaking skills. The course focuses on inclusive approaches, use of assistive technologies and adaptive activities that reduce cognitive load and increase motivation. Teachers will learn how to design supportive learning environments that enhance progress for dyslexic students.

METHODOLOGY

The course adopts a practical, learner-centered approach, combining:

- multisensory and structured-literacy workshops
- group discussions on challenges and solutions
- creation of accessible learning materials
- micro-teaching with peer feedback
- digital and assistive tools for dyslexia support

Participants will design inclusive activities and exchange best practices.

TARGET GROUP

- Regional and local authorities;
- School/ adult centre management department, collaborators and volunteers
- Teachers & school staff

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Understand how dyslexia affects foreign language learning.
- Apply multisensory and structured methods to teach vocabulary and grammar.
- Develop accessible tasks that support reading, listening and speaking.
- Use assistive technologies for decoding, spelling and text-to-speech.
- Reduce anxiety through supportive feedback and classroom routines.
- Create inclusive lesson plans and share practical strategies for helping dyslexic learners succeed.
